

Get to Know Florence Healthcare

We specialize in giving research sites their day back from paperwork.

We hope to prove ourselves as your partner in research.

Welcome to the Florence Family

You are joining more than 18,000 research sites in a network that spans 55+ countries, and we are excited to get to know you better.

Our Shared Mission:

- At Florence, we understand that your Investigator Site File is not just a collection of documents - or at least it shouldn't be.
- We know every regulatory document signed, every source document captured, and every task managed is a reflection of countless hours of work, unrelenting dedication and hope for advancing research.
- Florence's aim is to help customers like you become technology-enabled, to optimize workflows and processes, and to help you seamlessly exchange

Our Promise to You:

- We promise to have your back and to be an extension of a shared mission to advance research together.
- Learn more about next steps to leverage your new Florence account on the pages that follow.

How Flo Works for You

From simply surviving monitoring, to owning it.

With an intuitive and easy-to-use workspace that research sites love, managing your regulatory documents and workflows is a breeze. Plus, the days of mailing, emailing, scanning and faxing are behind you for good. Monitoring transforms to a seamless flow with less disruption and burden to your site.
